United States Ski & Snowboard

2020-21 U.S. Aerial Team Nomination Criteria

Eligibility for Consideration:
U.S. Ski and Snowboard will consider for selection only those U.S. Ski and Snowboard members in good standing who have a valid U.S. passport, a valid USA-coded FIS license and who meet FIS minimum eligibility standards.

An athlete shall be ineligible for consideration if previously suspended or removed from team membership without having been reinstated by U.S. Ski and Snowboard. An athlete who has previously declined an offer of team membership shall not be automatically offered team membership unless that athlete specifically requests consideration and the U.S. Ski and Snowboard Aerial Head Coach approves the request.

The U.S. Ski Team will select only the most qualified athletes with the greatest possibilities for winning medals in future World Championship and Olympic Winter Games competitions.

Selection criteria will also stress progress toward any individual performance markers, set forth by the U.S. Ski Team coaches, which point toward international success.

Athletes must demonstrate a capability to adhere to U.S. Ski and Snowboard Values and Code of Conduct to be eligible for nomination.

Criteria Guidelines:
- The U.S. Ski and Snowboard Aerial Head Coach is responsible for applying the selection criteria set forth herein, subject to the oversight of the U.S. Ski & Snowboard President & CEO and Sport Director.
- Objective selections shall be based on the results achieved by athletes in FIS competitions held between November 1, 2019 and March 29, 2020 (“the selection period”) and the World Ranking as determined by the FIS 10th Aerials points lists of the 2019-20 season.
- Discretionary nominations, if any, may be based on a variety of factors, including competitions conducted outside of the selection period.
- Team status does not guarantee funding from U.S. Ski and Snowboard for competition or for preparation.
- Athletes who have been given individual performance criteria to meet will be subject to those specific criteria and not to general criteria as outlined below.
- Athletes must be willing to commit to and participate in the full U.S. Ski Team camp and race season structure.
- Athletes who are nominated to the Team for the first time will receive a 2-year team nomination.
- Athletes who achieve a win or 2 Top 3 results during the 2019-20 season will receive a 2-year nomination.
- No minimum team size will be established.
A maximum of up to 12 total athletes will be nominated using the objective criteria outlined below. If more than 12 athletes qualify under the objective criteria then athletes will be nominated in order of the following priority:
- Athletes qualifying under the A-Team criteria
- Athletes qualifying under the B-Team criteria of one podium in an Aerial World Cup in the 2019-20 season.

Discretionary Selection Policy:
U.S. Ski and Snowboard may select additional athletes to the team using coaches’ discretion based upon factors other than the objective criteria. If the coaching staff selects any team nominations with discretionary selections, then the staff may consider any factors including (but not limited to) the following:

- Completion of individual markers, as set forth by the U.S. Ski Team coaching staff and as approved by the U.S. Ski and Snowboard Aerial Coach, which point toward the achievement of competition results consistent with U.S. Ski Team program goals.
- Illness or injury during the selection period.
- Indication of medal potential in future Olympic and World Championship competitions, which would be materially enhanced by selection to team.
- Other unanticipated failure of objective criteria to select an athlete likely to achieve competition results consistent with the U.S. Ski and Snowboard program goals

In-season Promotion:
Athletes will not be promoted in season. No athletes will be demoted during the season; however, funding may be suspended at any time if progress or commitment is not consistent with the team program and athlete does not remain in good standing.
