Part V, line 4:

These funds are used as grants to the United States Ski and Snowboard for the benefit of amateur athletes.

Part X, Line 2:

USSA, USSAIF, COEPF, and the Foundation are exempt under Internal Revenue Code Section 501(c)(3) from income taxes on earnings from related activities. Accordingly, income taxes are only provided on revenues from nonexempt activities and are included in administrative expenses. USST is a taxable corporation and is responsible for filing separate income tax returns.

Part XIII Supplemental Information (continued)

USST accounts for income taxes using the asset and liability method.

Income taxes are provided for the tax effects of transactions reporting in the combined/consolidated financial statements and consist of taxes currently due plus deferred taxes related primarily to differences between the basis of receivables, inventory, property and equipment, intangible assets, and accrued expenses for financial and income tax reporting. The deferred tax assets and liabilities represent the future tax return consequences of those differences, which will either be taxable or deductible when the assets and liabilities are recovered or settled.

Deferred tax assets are reduced by a valuation allowance when, in the opinion of management, it is more likely than not that some portion or all of the deferred tax assets will not be realized.

Management believes that each entity has appropriate support for any tax positions taken affecting its annual filing requirements and, as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are material to the combined/consolidated financial statements. Management would recognize future accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits and liabilities in income tax expense if such interest and penalties are incurred.
